

Rainham Hall

School sessions

Early Years, Key Stages 1-5

Reinforce your classroom work with a visit to Rainham Hall. We offer a range of cross-curricular sessions where schools can explore the Hall and garden in an engaging and hands-on way to support learning.

All visits must be booked in advance. You can also benefit from Education Group Membership.

Education Group Membership (EGM)

The National Trust is recognised as being Britain's biggest classroom. Education Group Membership is specially designed to allow education groups free entry to most places owned by the National Trust for a year. Please note that additional costs may apply for facilitated learning sessions.

You are still welcome to visit Rainham Hall without EGM, but the regular cost of £9 per adult and £4 per child would apply (plus session costs where applicable). EGM can be purchased on the day of your visit!

Cost of EGM for one year:

Number on role	Rate
Under 50	£50.00
51-100	£80.00
101 - 200	£95.00
201 - 500	£100.00
Over 500	£120.00

Minibeasts

EYFS & KS1
Science

Learn all about minibeasts and explore Rainham Hall's garden, investigating different habitats and discovering what minibeasts live there.

Seed planting

EYFS & KS1
Science

During the Spring and Summer months we offer planting sessions where children can plant seeds in our Community Garden. Follow up visits are available for children to see the seed growth.

Local history

KS2
History

Built in 1729 by Captain John Harle, Rainham Hall has been home to over 50 different inhabitants in its nearly 300 year history. Learn about the Hall's past, and its current resident, Anthony Denney.

Art inspiration

KS1 & 2
Art, History

Look at paint schemes and decoration in the Hall, from the eighteenth century until the early 2000s, including colour and texture, to inspire pupils' artwork.

Fashion photography and interior design

KS3-5
Fashion, photography, interior design

Discover the world of Anthony Denney: a fashion photographer, interior designer, art connoisseur and style icon who exerted enormous influence on post-war Britain.

Planning your visit

Session availability

Sessions in the Hall and Garden are available every day of the week during term time but please be aware that members of the public may also be visiting. All sessions run for 45 minutes to an hour and can accommodate up to 30 children and accompanying adults. A cost of £2 per child applies for all facilitated sessions.

Self-led sessions

Self-led visits to the Hall are available. For schools with EGM self-led visits are free. Without EGM the usual entrance rate applies. Self-led visits to the garden can be also booked during the week.

Facilities

Sessions take place in one of our indoor or outdoor classrooms and onsite, with storage for belongings and access to toilets. For lunch you are welcome to picnic in our gardens. In inclement weather a decision will be made on the day as to whether an indoor lunch space is available.

Booking

All school visits to Rainham Hall (including the garden) must be booked in advance. Due to the size of the property we are unable to accommodate school groups who arrive without booking.

To make a booking enquiry please contact us on 01708525579 or email rainhamhall@nationaltrust.org.uk

Please let us know what date/s you would like to visit, how many classes you want to bring and of what age group. We will get back to you as soon as possible to confirm.

Pre-visits

Teachers are welcome to visit Rainham Hall on a preliminary visit to see the site and discuss any requirements. Please contact us to book a suitable time.

Health and safety

All National Trust sites have been fully risk assessed and we do our utmost to ensure your school visit is fun, worthwhile and safe. You will receive further information to carry out your own risk assessment when you make a booking.

Please ensure that you fulfil your school and LEA requirements for adult/child ratios.
